Boston, Massachusetts, USA

HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL

DEPARTMENT OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

Presented by

Brigham and Women's Hospital

Department of General Internal Medicine - Hospitalist Service

Update in Hospital Medicine

October 29-31, 2009, Boston, MA

Program Highlights

- Obtain the latest information on key clinical topics
- Attend plenary sessions by national experts in patient safety, burnout, and cardiology
- Join breakout discussion sessions on key areas in hospital medicine
- Network with Joseph M. Li, MD, FHM and Anjala V. Tess, MD, FHM on leadership and teaching

Practical Learning Format

The main teaching method will be interactive learning with small group discussions and case studies. Discussion groups will meet each afternoon to respond to content questions and share reactions. This process provides an opportunity to work closely with your colleagues to review real-world issues.

Objectives

By the end of the course, attendees will be able to:

- Deliver key information for hospitalists, residents, and all clinicians who provide inpatient care
- Provide practical, evidence-based updates that answer questions encountered in the everyday hospital medicine practice
- Assist physicians planning to recertify in the Boards of Internal Medicine and update their training
- Provide tools for QI initiatives in the community setting
- Enable networking opportunities

Who Should Attend

Participants in this dynamic program are leaders who wish to adapt their knowledge and skills to the constantly changing field, including:

- Medical Directors and Practicing Hospitalists
- Allied Health Professionals
- Residents or Fellows interested in Hospital Medicine
