

Resident Travel Grant Rubric

Teaching value

Clarity of writing

Research originality
(Importance to HM)

Involvement of resident/fellow in research project

Commitment to a future career in HM

	OUTSTANDING	VERY GOOD	GOOD	AVERAGE	UNACCEPTABLE
	5	4	3	2	1
Teaching value	Teaching points made at a high level such that people walk away with new information	Teaching points made, very well but still linger in general knowledge	Teaching points made well but statements general and not engaging	Some points made, but in general did not learn much	Was unclear in points being made
Clarity of writing	Outstanding writing that was clear and engaging	Writing was good; engaged reader in meaningful way	Writing was average and not engaging to the reader	Poorly written such that I had to reread points to understand	Not well written, sentence structure poor, grammatical errors
Research originality (Importance to HM)	Of highest interest to members; clear and compelling addition	High interest to members; additive to knowledge base	Moderate interest to members; an average-level project	Of low interest to SHM members. Not very original.	Of no interest to SHM members
Involvement of resident/fellow in research project	Fully involved with project design, data collection, data analysis, and/or write-up		Somewhat involved with project design, data collection, data analysis and/or write-up		Minimal role in project design, data collection, data analysis, and/or write-up
Commitment to a future career in HM	Obvious and passionate commitment	Above average commitment	Some commitment	Little to no commitment	No commitment

TOTAL SCORE: _____